James E. Clark

Funeral services for James E. Clark, 81, of 103 S. Kline St., Aberdeen, were held at 2 p. m., Saturday, Aug. 27, at the Presbyterian church in Groton. The Rev. Kayton R. Palmer of Aberdeen officiated. Burial was in the Union Cemetery at Groton. Ackerson Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Music was provided by Margaret and Myrtle Blader at the service. Mrs. Robert Wegner was accompanist.

Mr. Clark, a retired farmer, died Tuesday at St. Luke's Hospital in Aberdeen.

He was born May 22, 1885 at Keokuk, Iowa; and was married to Mary Ewart of Aberdeen, Nov. 21, 1919. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Aberdeen and of the Masonic Lodge.

Mr. Clark had been a resident of the Aberdeen area since 1941 and, prior to that, of the Claremont area.

He leaves his wife, Mary, of Aberdeen; two sons, Lee of Fort Dodge, Iowa, and James of Marietta, Ga.; one daughter, Mrs. Nine Stokes, Sioux City, Iowa; one borther, Harry of Mountain Grove, Mo.; one sister, Mrs. Sylvia Johnson, Poplar Bluff, Mo.; nine grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his first wife in 1918 and by three brothers and one sister.
