September 3, 1964

Eric J. Davidson

Funeral services for Eric J. Davidson, 79, of Langford were held Friday, Aug. 28, at the Augustana Lutheran church near Claremont at 2:00 p. m., with the Rev. M. C. Van Steen officiating.

Manley Green was soloist accompanied by Gloria Hanson, organist.

Active pall bearers were Lambert Johnson, Arnold Sippel, Dale Quist, George Hanson, Vincent Malm and Chester Hanson. Honorary pall bearers were Albert Akerson, Merle McGee, Carl Johnson, Harry Quist, Albert Sippel and Oscar Dombrowe. Burial was in the Groton cemetery. Arrangements were made by Paetznick Funeral Home.

Mr. Davidson, a retired Claremont area farmer passed away Monday at the Britton hospital.

He was born in Sweden on May 11, 1885. On July 6, 1914 he was married to Esther Linnier at St. Paul, Minn. He lived in the Claremont area since 1913 and was a member of the Augustana Lutheran Church, Masonic Lodge and Eastern Star of Claremont and Yelduz Shrine of Aberdeen.

He is survived by a brother, Fridolf of Langford.

He was preceded in death by his wife, four brothers and two sisters.