November 5, 1980

Mrs. Dorfschmidt

Services for Mrs. Richard (Myrtle) Dorfschmidt, 76, lifelong Groton resident, were held Saturday, Nov. 1, at St. John's Lutheran Church with the Rev. Monte Guse-welle officiating.

Mrs. Dorfschmidt died Wednesday, Oct. 29, at the University of Minnesota Hospital.

Mrs. Eugene Neuman, organist, accompanied the congregation as they sang "Rock of Ages" and "Nearer My God To Thee".

Casket bearers were Ralph Karnopp, Eugene Neuman, Emil Rose, Orville Schaller, Lyle Thurston and Robert Voigt.

Gordon Nelson was usher.

Burial was in Groton Union Cemetery.

Myrtle Rosenow was born December 17, 1903, in West Hanson Township, Brown County. She was married to Richard Dorfschmidt at Webster on January 30, 1923. She was a member of the Church's Ladies Aid.

Survivors include one son, Harvey, Groton; one brother, Frank Rosenow, Groton; two sisters, Mrs. Josephine Fredrickson, Groton; and Mrs. Frances Gross, Chamberlain; and three grandchildren.

Her husband preceded her in death.