

January 25, 1962

Mrs. Charles Adams

Charles E. Adams passed away at home in San Clemente, Calif., January 12, 1962, at the age of 78. He had been in failing health for some time but was seriously injured by a fall in her home just before Christmas and never fully recovered from the effects of the slight concussion he received.

Dotan Adams was born in St. Paul, Minn., on August 2, 1883, the daughter of Franklin B. Doran a Civil War veteran and at one time mayor of St. Paul. She attended Macalester College and Northwestern University. She then came to Groton as a teacher of music and art in the public schools. In 1920 she was married to Charles E. Adams, who was manager of the local telephone company for many years.

While living in Groton Mrs. Adams was an active member of the PEO Chapter, Phosde Club, the Eastern Star and was organist, choir director and Sunday school teacher in the Presbyterian church. In 1949 they moved to San Clemente, Calif., where Mrs. Adams continued to be active in the Presbyterian church and PEO.

Mrs. Adams is survived by her husband, Charles, and her two daughters, Miss Margaret E. Adams, a resident in Santa Ana, Calif., and Mrs. E. Damon (Jane) of Grand Rapids, Mich., and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in the Community Presbyterian church of San Clemente on January 15, 1962, with interment in Melrose Abbey, Santa Ana, California.