Adeline Goetz

Adeline Goetz, 78, a longtime Plainview, Minn., resident, died of an apparent heart attack Thursday evening near her home.

Born Adeline Nack July 14, 1919, in Groton, she attended Aberdeen College. She married William Goetz in Groton November 5, 1929 and they lived in Plainview, Minn., all their married lives.

She had been a cook at Plainview Community Schools and a correspondent for the Plainview News. She was a member of the Plainview senior citizens group, and was an active member of Immanuel Lutheran Church where she sang in the choir and was a member of the Priscilla Club.

Survivors include her husband; two sons, James, Bloomfield Hills, Mich., and Fredric, Fairfield, Calif.; seven grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and a brother, Walter Nack, Aberdeen. A grandchild preceded her in death.

The funeral was held Monday at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Plainview with the Rev. Gerald Peterson officiating. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery in Plainview.

Casketbearers were Dan Goetz, Don Fieks, Darrel Hendrickson, Darrel Nack, Robert Mann, Marvin Reinecke, Marvin Zabel and Elmer Timm.

Schad and Zabel Funeral Home in Plainview was in charge of the arrangements.
