MRS. A. H. ANDERSON GONE

Another home was made desolate last Saturday night when Mrs. A. H. Anderson passed over the dark river, after all that human skill could suggest had been done for her relief.

Anna Kukuk was born at Wilton, Wis., thirty-five years ago. On April 19, 1888 she became the wife of Anton H. Anderson at Groton, D. T. She is survived by husband and five children, two boys and three girls.

Funeral services were held at the home on Monday afternoon, at which time the spacious rooms were filled by a large gathering of friends and neighbors. Many wreaths of flowers were brought as symbols of sympathy to the family and kindly thoughts for the departed.

Brief and appropriate funeral service was conducted by Rev. C. W. Zech, and a large number of people accompanied the remains to Union Cemetery, where the body was laid to rest.

The bereaved family has the sympathy of all in its untimely loss.
