

December 30, 1948

J. W. Anderson Dies Unexpectedly Sunday

News of the sudden death of J. W. Anderson, 53, proprietor of Andy's Corner Service and Store, which occurred early Sunday morning, came as a shock to his many friends and neighbors.

Mr. Anderson, who had been engaged in business on the intersection of highways 12 and 37, north of Groton for the past three years, was in ill health for several months, but no one suspected that the illness was of a critical nature and his sudden departure came very unexpectedly.

Rosary will be said at the Paetznick Funeral Home, Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock and funeral services will be held at St. John's Catholic church at 10:00 a. m., Thursday, with the Rev. Fr. Thos. J. Shanley officiating.