

9-12-90
Corey Ray Armour-Bobeldyke

Corey Ray Armour-Bobeldyke, 17, Andover, was killed in a one-vehicle accident near Andover, S.D., Tuesday, Aug. 28, 1990.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. at the First Presbyterian Church, Groton, August 31, 1990, with the Rev. Bill Duncan officiating. Burial was at Restlawn Memory Garden, Huron, S.D., with the committal service at 3:30 p.m.

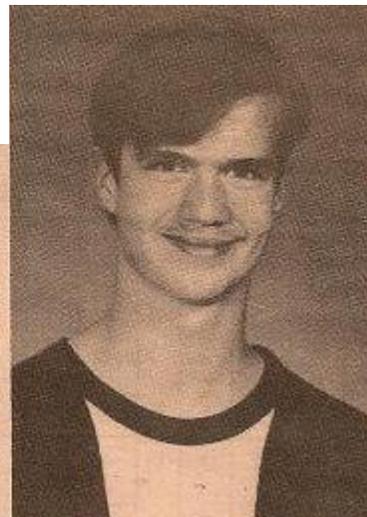

Corey Armour-Bobeldyke was born May 7, 1973 at Huron, S.D. His parents are Jim and Cindy

Armour-Bobeldyke. The family had lived at Stratford, where he attended Warner School. In 1988 they moved to Andover and Corey attended Groton High School, where he would have been a Junior. He also worked part-time at the Morehouse Dairy Farm, Andover. He was active in vocal music and took part in the Science Fair at Groton High School. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, Stratford.

He is survived by his parents, Andover; one brother, Alan Joe, at home; and his grandparents, Janet and Ernest Bobeldyke, Huron.

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandmother.

Casket bearers were Adam Brunes, Jamie and Scott Hagen,

Mike Ishmael, Jason Murray, and Peter Skon.

The organist was Mrs. Ber Anderson and there was a duet by Kriste Brunes and Connie Kramer.

Ushers were Trent Anderson and Doug Duncan.

The Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel of Groton was in charge of the arrangements.