DEATH OF MRS. JULSON

The death on Saturday last of Mrs. Jame Juleson has aroused the deepest sympathy for the family which has been so sorely stricken at Christmastide.

Mrs. Juleson was fifty-two years of age, a native of Norway, coming to America with her parents at the age of eleven years, and settling in Fillmore county, Minn.

She was united in marriage with Mr James Juleson at Austin, Minn., in 1899, coming to Dakota Territory two years later, where they established their home and have since resided. Five children were born to this union, three of whom survive.

Mrs. Julson had not been in rugged health for several years, but her condition was not at any time regarded as critical. Just the day before she died she asked to be taken from the bed and sat up several hours.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church on Tuesday afternoon. A large number of neighbors and friends assembling to pay their last respects to one who was well beloved, and who had spent nearly all of her mature years as a South Dakotan.
