

November 29, 1945

Oscar L. Bacon Funeral Held Sunday Afternoon

Funeral services for Oscar L. Bacon who died at his home in Aberdeen, Thursday morning, Nov. 22, were conducted at the Paetznick Funeral Home Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock with burial at the Groton Union Cemetery.

Oscar Logan Bacon was born, Nov. 26, 1886, at Huffton, S. D. He was a resident of that vicinity until last April when he moved to Aberdeen, to make his home.

In December 1917, he married Mildred Cole of Aberdeen.

He is survived by his widow, two daughters, Mrs. Elmer Mashek and Mrs. Ivan Haines, both of Aberdeen, and by two sons, Philip of Houghton and Walter of Aberdeen, three grandsons, one sister, Mrs. V. A. Kemp of Pierpont; two brothers, Arthur of Hamilton, Mont., and Wendell of Munson, Mass. He was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers.

Sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.