Zola Krahn

12-5-79

Zola D. Krahn, 83, of Stratford, died Friday, Nov. 30, at Bethesda Home of Aberdeen. Funeral services were Tuesday, Dec. 4, at Miller-Huebl Funeral Home in Aberdeen with the Rev. James Hanson, of Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Aberdeen officiating.

Organist for the service was Jude Borgesen, the soloist was Dave Sueltz who sang "How Great Thou Art" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Burial was in Riverside Cemetery of Aberdeen.

Casket bearers were Albert Jaeschke, Charles Jaeschke, Earl Zoellner, Robert Zoellner, Clarence (Jack) Adler and Lyle Thompson, all of Groton.

Zola Diana Hale was born at Hillsboro, Wis., on January 11, 1896 to John and Flora Crary Hale. As a child the family moved to South Dakota, she attended school at Groton and later attended NSC. She was married to Otto B. Krahn at Aberdeen on September 22, 1913. They made their home on their farm south of James. They later lived and farmed in the Groton, Leola and Bath areas until her husband's death in 1952. Later she moved to Stratford and lived there until 1977 when she moved to Aberdeen and resided at the Bethesda Home of Aberdeen until the time of her death.

She was survived by one son, Donald Krahn of Aberdeen, two daughters, Mrs. Herbert (Mona) Radke and Mrs. Hilbert (Ruth) Radke, both of Stratford, also seven grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren and three great, great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, one son, two brothers and one sister.