MRS. L. C. KRANHOLD PASSES AWAY MONDAY

MRS. L. C. KRANHOLD DIES AFTER VERY SERIOUS OPERATION AT ABERDEEN

All Brown county mourns in the death of Mrs. L. C. Kranhold, wife of the county auditor of Brown county, whose death occurred Monday afternoon at 5:30. The end came very suddenly and followed a short but severe illness from an operation performed a few days ago.

The death of Mrs. Kranhold has caused sorrow among friends in many circles. A resident of Groton for many years, Mrs. Kranhold had formed firm friends in that city before moving to Aberdeen with her husband a year ago on his appointment to the office of county auditor.

Mr. and Mrs. Kranhold had made their home in a number of South Dakota cities. The early home of the deceased was at Sioux Falls, and later she resided in Redfield, Salem and Groton, while Mr. Kranhold was associated with the Tuthill Lumber company, of which he was manager of the Groton branch, at the time of his county appointment.

Mrs. Kranhold was 38 years of age. She was a member of the Congregational church at Sioux Falls and of the Eastern Star at Groton. She is mourned in death by her husband, her mother, Mrs. Celia Ward of Sioux Falls; two brothers, Fred Ward of Sioux Falls and Robert Ward of Canon City, Colo.; two sisters, Mrs. W. C. Funk of Groton and Mrs. R. C. McVay of Havre, Mont., also survive her. —Aberdeen Journal.

A short funeral service was held at the Undertaking establishment of Huebl in Aberdeen, and services will be conducted here at the Presbyterian church at 2:30 today (Thursday), Rev. A. R. Hickman officiating, after which the remains will be laid to rest in Union cemetery.

Many friends in this city extend sympathy to the sorrowing relatives, as she lived here for a number of years, and won warm remembrance in the hearts of her associates and neighbors.
