John Kranzler

5-3-89

GROTON - The funeral for John Kranzler, 75, Groton, was held Wednesday, April 26, 1989 at Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel in Groton. The Rev. Anne Muldoon officiated.

Burial was in the Greenmound Cemetery at Leola.

He died Monday, April 24, 1989, at Colonial Manor, Groton.

John Kranzler was born March 24, 1914, near Leola to John B. and Marie (Lepp) Kranzler. He served in World War II in Algeria, French-Morocco Campaign, Tunisia Campaign, Sicilian Campaign and at Normandy. After the service, he farmed in the Frederick area for about five years. He lived in Aberdeen until the early 1970s when he moved to Groton. He had been a resident of Colonial Manor since June 1988. He was a retired roofer.

Survivors include three brothers, Peter Kranzler, Edward Kranzler, and Jacob Kranzler, all of Aberdeen; and three sisters, Mrs. Emelia Watson, Garden City, mrs. Sophie Kempf and Mrs. Lena Bauer, both of Aberdeen.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother.