

March 26, 1896

DEATH.

Frederick Bahr died suddenly at his home at Ferney, Wednesday evening, at seven o'clock. While comfortably sitting in his chair conversing with his family, and seemingly in his usual good health, death came without warning and apparently without pain and took away the husband and father of ten children. Deceased was seventy-six years, nine months and five days of age. The funeral takes place at his residence Monday afternoon at one o'clock.