10-27-82

Brian J. Kriens

Services for Brian J. Kriens, 19, Clark, were held at 11 a.m., Saturday, Oct. 23, at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Clark with the Rev. Joseph P. Mardian, the Rev. Paul Morgen, the Rev. Edward Burian and the Rev. Marvin McPhee officiating. Burial was in St. George's Catholic Cemetery in Hartford.

Casketbearers were Jim Aalbers, David Clausen, Gene Lorenz, Todd Fiedler, Ron Clausen and Randy Gruenwald. Ushers were Jim Forest and Harold Hurlbert. St. Michael's Church Choir provided the music.

Brian John Kriens was born Septemper 20, 1963, at Watertown. He died October 18, 1982, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H.O. Wheelock in Darlington Township of Clark County.

He attended school at Groton until 1979 when the family moved to Clark. He graduated from Clark High School in 1981. While in high school he played drums in the Clark High School Band.

Brian had attended Presentation College at Aberdeen. He was a member of St. Michael's Catholic Church at Clark.

Surivors are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H.O. Wheelock of Clark; one sister, Mrs. Jerry (Rebecca) Rinehart of Denver, Colo.; and three brothers, Howard Wheelock of Malcolm, Neb.; Terrence Wheelock of Sioux Falls; and Craig Wheelock at Lakewood, Calif.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents.