October 8, 1953

Albert Lenling

neral services were held Friday noon at 2:00 o'clock, at St. John's eran church in West Hanson, for t Lenling, 68, who passed away s home Monday, Sept. 28, 1953, suffering a heart attack. The R. M. Grundmeier officiated. hymn selections, "The Lord's My herd" and "I Am But a Stranger Heaven is My Home," were sung Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sueltz. Burial in the church cemetery.

ll bearers were Walter and Wil- Bartz, Stratford; Arthur Pigors, ver; Oliver Schumacher, Carth- Walter Thomas, Glencross, and Erdmann, Wetonka.

ert Ernest Lenling was born on 12, 1885, in Hanson township, he grew to manhood. He was d in St. John's Lutheran church t Hanson on May 17, 1885, by Rev. Metz, and confirmed on April August 6, 1907, he was married ura Dubberstein. The couple en- in farming in the West Hanson ship vicinity until the year of when they moved to Groton, they resided since. Mr. Len- was a most faithful member of St. Lutheran church in West Han- all his life. God gave him grace good father, a loving grand- and a life-long kind and de- husband. He was preceded in by a son, Alvin, on July 8, 1918.

vors include his wife, Laura; sons, Waldemar and Berthold of and Leonard of Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Emma Nack, Groton; Arthur, Glencross; also 11 ildren, and one great grand-ives from away attending the were: Mr and Mrs. Oliver cher, Carthage, S. D.; Mr. and thur Pigors, Andover; Mr. and Earl Cutlip, Minneapolis; Mr. s. Otto Lenling and daughter, arley Lenling of Havana, N. D.; Mrs. Emil Bartz, Reeder, N. and Mrs. Herman Erdmann, Mrs. Ray Ellsworth and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Erd- son, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Erd- children, Wetonka, S. D.; Mrs. Walter Thor and Darlene, Mrs. Lou rkel Adeline Lorenzen and chil- cross, S. D.; A-3c Glenn A. Keesler Air Force Base, Mis- Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Stange, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bartz and Mrs. William Bartz, Mr. Otto Bartz, Stratford, and Mrs. William Goetz, Plain- His son, Leonard Len- Seattle, Wash., was unable to services.