June 9, 1932

Mrs. Wm. Lowary is Found Dead in Bed

Bessie

Mrs. William Lowary, wife of a substantial farmer living near Putney, was found dead in bed Sunday morning, her death being caused presumably, by a heart attack. She seemingly had been in the best of health up until the time of her death, performing the usual household duties about the home. Consequently the news of her demise came as a great shock to the people residing in Putney territory. She was 33 years of age.

Mrs. Lowary came to this section from Illinois in 1921 and settled near Putney, where the family has since made its home. She is survived by her husband, four small children, together with a large number of relatives living in Illinois, part of whom arrived Wednesday morning to attend the funeral. It will be held from the Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. E. W. Spence and the remains laid to rest in Groton cemetery.