December 7, 1977

12/7

loyd Mahan

Services for Floyd Mahan, 85, Turton, retired insurance agent, were held Tuesday, Dec. 6, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Turton with the Rev. Marvin McPhee and the Rev. Edward Burian officiating. Burial was in St. John's Catholic Cemetery at Groton.

Mr. Mahan died Sunday, Dec. 4, at St. Luke's Hospital in Aberdeen.

Rosary was said at 7:30 Monday evening at the Paetznick - Garness Funeral Chapel and at 1:30 p.m., Tuesday at the church in Turton.

Tom Huber sang "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Marvel Troske, organist.

Casketbearers were Roland Barrie, Robert Dix, Marvin Mannie, John Rahm Jr., N.V. Sorby and Joe Thome.

Mr. Mahan was born October 28, 1892, at Conde. He married Blanche Fortin January 1, 1925, at Aberdeen. He was a former Democratic chairman for South Dakota and was a banker in Turton for several years. He was also a musician for several years and lived in the Turton area all of his life.

Survivors include his widow; two sons, Jack of Groton and Tom of Burnsville, Minn.; one daughter, Mrs. William (Mertys) Reese, Aberdeen; and seven grandchildren and three great-grandchild en.