Mrs. Mae F. Barth

Requiem High Mass was celebrated Saturday, Jan. 28, in St. John's Catholic church in Groton, with the Rev. Fr. E. J. Coyne officiating. Other members of the clergy in attendance included, the Rev. Fr. Thomas J. Shanley of Milbank, and the Rev. Fr. Hoerner of St. Mary's Aberdeen.

Mrs. Barth, 63, widow of the late John E. Barth, passed away Monday, Jan. 23, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Halloran in Wenatchee, Wash.

Mrs. Barth was born at Keystone, Iowa, on Nov. 22, 1887. The Barth family moved to Groton in 1919 from Houghton. John E. Barth, her late husband, was associated with the Atlas Elevator Co., until the time of his death in 1929. Since 1939, she has made her home with her sons and daughter in Cincinnati, Philadelphia and Wenatchee, Wash.

Immediate survivors are, a daughter, Margaret Halloran; three sons, Donald, John and Bernard Barth, and a sister, Miss Agnes Fitzgerald.

Mrs. Barth gained the friendship of many friends in Groton and community during her residence here and the long association in the local post office, who extend their sympathy to the family in the loss of their loved one.
