Donald Nelson

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Nov. 23, at the Methodist Church in Colton for Donald Nelson, former Putney resident.

The deceased, son of Emil and Frances Nelson, lived here during his early years when his father was manager of the Putney Elevator, later moving to Lyons. He now lived in Colton, where he and his brother-in-law, Clarence Alberts, were at one time in an oil business for a number of years.

Survivors include his widow, Helen; one son and one daughter, two grandchildren; his mother, Mrs. Frances Nelson, Colton; his brother, Charles Nelson of Commerce City, Colo.; and two sisters, Mrs. Clarence (Meda) Alberts of Spirit Lake, Iowa, and Betty Nelson of Colton.
