Mrs. C. L. Parduhn

Funeral services for Mrs. Charles Parduhn were held Tuesday, June 5, at 2:00 o'clock at St. Pauls Lutheran church at Stratford, with the Rev. H. Hildebrant officiating. Burial was in East Rondell cemetery.

Duets were sung by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sueltz. The organist was Miss Jackie Radke.

Pall bearers were Louis Schlick, William Baggett, William Schwartz, Alvin Von Wald, La Verne and Clarence Schley. Ushers were Wm. Bartz and Leland Stange.

Mrs. Parduhn passed away Sunday morning June 3rd. following a stroke, at the home of her daughter in Shorewood, Wis. She reached the age of 85 years, 2 months and 14 days.

Magdalene Parduhn, the daughter of Christian and Wilhelmina Zeidler, was born in Lomira, Wis., on March 19, 1877. On November 25, 1897 she was married to Charles Parduhn and lived with him in a happy married life for nearly 65 years. Their 60th wedding anniversary was celebrated in November 1957. The Parduhns had two daughters, one of whom preceeded her in death in September, 1912.

They came to live in Stratford in 1907 and remained there until the fall of 1961, when due to failing health they moved to Wisconsin to live with the daughter.

Mrs. Parduhn was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran church of Stratford and when the Sunday School was organized she took over the Primary class and taught this class for many years. She was also a charter member of the ladies aid.

Mourners include her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Lauretta Schulz of Shorewood, Wis., two grandchildren, other relatives and a host of friends.
