

ARTELIA BELL DIES

12-19-1918
Former Grotonite Passes Away at California Home.

Word received in Groton Monday bore the information that Miss Artelia Bell had passed away at her home at Chino, Cal., on Monday, at 12:30 p. m., erysipelas being the cause. She had not been ill for so very long, and news of her death was not expected in Groton and it came as a shock to many friends here.

Miss Bell is remembered by many of the older residents of Groton. She was for many years a Groton resident, during which time she was engaged in teaching music, coming here as one of the early settlers.

She leaves to mourn her loss in Groton, John Bell and the S. A. Hoy family who are related.
