Ada Pigors 10/17/84

Services for Ada Pigors, 79, Andover were held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, Oct. 10, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Ferney, with the Rev. Larry I. Geyer officiating.

Burial was in the Ferney Cemetery.

She died Saturday, Oct. 6, 1984, at Dakota Midland Hospital, Aberdeen.

Casketbearers were Tim Morton, Todd Morton, Rick Pigors, Tom Pigors, Bob Pigors, and Doug Krueger. Honorary casketbearers were all her friends. Organist was Mrs. Dallas Sombke. There was a duet by Clarence and Gary Baule, "How Great Thou Art." The congregation sang, "Asleep In Jesus," "Oh Lord, My God I Cry to Thee" and "I'm But A Stranger Here." Usher was Mike Harry.

Ada Pigors was born on August 16, 1905, at Stratford. She graduated from high school there. She attended Northern Normal Industrial School and taught in rural schools three years. On June 11, 1928, she married Arthur Pigors at Aberdeen.

She was a member of Ladies Aid, Christian Literature Good Cheer Circle, Lutheran Laymen's League and LWML. She taught Sunday School 50 years.

Survivors include her widower, Andover; two sons, Donald and James, both of Andover; one daughter, Mrs. William (Darlene) Morton, Conde; one brother, Bernard Lenling, Mercedes, Tex.; one sister, Mrs. Oliver (Hertha) Schumacher, Carthage; eight grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, one daughter, one son, one brother, and one sister.