DEATH OF AN UNKNOWN

A man who went by the name of H. E. Rigby died very suddenly Sunday evening at the Farmers' retaurant as the result of a hemorrhage.

On his person were Eagle lodge cards, Streator, Ill., issued in '06, to Lorenz Kroner. He was without funds, and as there was no response to telegrams in an effort to recah relatives or friends, the body was buried at public expense.

Later—A letter from Dr. Reddick of Paducah, Ky., in response to a telegram, was received by Deputy Crawford this morning. It says: "Bettie Mansfield (colored) my cook thinks the man is her son. He is a mullatto, and would pass for a white man. His name is Chas. Slaugh. He is about 35 years of age. He was probably under an assumed name, because he was a deserter from the Spanish-American army. She thinks it is her son because he gave you the name of Hal Daniels of this city, who is an uncle and is a colored man."
