Ronald Rosenberg

8-14-80

Word has been received here of the May 3 death of Ronald K. Rosenberg, 59, former Groton and Aberdeen resident.

Private burial was at Fairfield, Calif., where he had been residing.

Mr. Rosenberg was born at Groton and grew up here, graduating from Groton High School in 1938. He was employed by the city of Aberdeen engineering department for 17 years before moving to California. He had served as a public works inspector in California for the past 14 years. He was a member of the VFW and the American Legion in Aberdeen and the Methodist Church.

Survivors include his widow, Ann, of 287 Camelia St., Fairfield, Calif.; two daughters, Peggy West, Oakhurst, Calif.; and Patti Stafford, Soda Springs, Calif.; one son, Robert, of Fairfield; and one grandchild.

The family prefers memorials to the American Cancer Society.