December 5, 1957

WILLIAM H. ROSENOW

William H. Rosenow, 127 Hackett St., Beloit, Wis., a resident there since 1936, died at 4:30 a. m., Sunday, Nov. 24, 1957.

Mr. Rosenow was born February 4, 1879, in Fond du Lac, Wis., and he married Bertha Rose on October 5, 1902 in Groton. He was a retired employe of Fairbanks, Morse & Co., and a member of St. John's Lutheran church.

Survivors are two sons, Harold H. and Herman R., and three grandchildren, at Beloit. His wife died Oct. 2, 1952.

Funeral services were held at 11:00 a. m., Tuesday of last week, in the Rosman-Uehling-Kinzer chapel with the Rev. J. W. Baese officiating. Burial was in Eastlawn cemetery at Beloit.

The Rosenow family resided in Groton and vicinity for many years before moving to Beloit, and have a host of relatives and friends here who deeply regret to learn of Mr. Rosenow's passing.