Paulina L. Schlenker

5-6-87

The funeral for Paulina L. Schlenker, 73, Groton was held Thursday at Miller-Huebl Funeral Home, Aberdeen. The Rev. R.A. Giese of St. Paul's Lutheran church officiated.

Burial was in Riverside Cemetery.

She died Friday, May 1, 1987 at Aberdeen Nursing Center.

Paulina Lydia Kirschenmann was born February 3, 1914 at Tripp to Christ and Christina Hoff Kirschenmann. She attended rural school near Harrold and Harrold High School. On August 27, 1937 she married Arthur E. Schlenker at Harrold. They made their home in Sully County near Onida, where they farmed. In 1947 they moved to Houghton and later in 1957 to Groton. In September 1986 she moved to the Americana Healthcare Center and in December 1986 to Aberdeen Nursing Center.

Survivors include her husband, Arthur E., Aberdeen; two sons, Arthur E. Jr., Cheyenne, Wyo.; and Arlan E. Schlenker, Bancroft; three daughters, Mrs. Curtis (Arlene) Bain, and Mrs. Melvin (Ardis) Pietz, both of Aberdeen; and Mrs. Don (Arla) Weifenbach, Westport; two sisters, Beata Donner, Huron; and Hulda Kirschenmann, Harrold; 16 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, one daughter, one brother and two sisters.

Casketbearers were Jack Oliver, Groton; Jeffery Roth, Matt Bain and Nick Bain, all of Aberdeen; Tracy Irion, Westport and Timothy Irion, Fort Polk, La.

Honorary casketbearers were all her friends.

Sue Samson was the organist and Chris Ball was the soloist.