E. Shoemaker

Eleanor M. Shoemaker, 66, Aberdeen, died early Sunday, June 25, at St. Luke's Hospital.

The funeral service was held Thursday, June 29, at the Wesleyan Church, Aberdeen, with the Rev. Earl D. Olson officiating. Burial was at Riverside Memorial Park Cemetery.

Eleanor M. Shoemaker, the daughter of Charles and Lulu Hess Shoemaker, was born on September 2, 1911, at Stratford. She attended rural school and graduated from Stratford High School. She then attended Northern State College and received her bachelor and master degrees in education. She taught rural schools in Brown, Faulk, Spink and Grant Counties. She later, taught at Andover, Buffalo, Wyo. and then returned to Aberdeen in 1943, where she taught until her retirement in May, 1976, at which time she was teaching at Holgate Junior High School.

She was a member of the Wesleyan Church, the Wesleyan Women's Missionary Society, the International Order of the Kings Daughters and Sons, Inc., the N.R.T.A., the S.E.R.T.A. and the N.E.S.D.R.T.A., which are all retired teachers associations.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. J.M. (Melva) Meighen, Kerrville, Tx.; two nephews, Paul Shoemaker, Sioux Falls and Gerald Meighen, Omaha, Neb.; two nieces, Barbara Greenfield, Chicago, Ill. and Karen Valkanos, Champaign, Ill. She was preceeded in death by her parents and one brother.