August 1, 1916

MEETS SAD DEATH

Infant Child Falls in Pail of Milk and Drowns.

Lois May, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Simonson, met with a very sad accident Saturday morning at about 8:30 o'clock, when she fell head first into a pail of milk, and before being discovered, had drowned.

Mrs. Simonson was engaged with churning and she left a pail with about three or four inches of milk on the back porch. The little girl often played out there, and she was left there in this instance without any thought that anything could possibly happen her. In some manner she fell into the pail, and before her mother again went onto the porch and discovered her, life was extinct.

Funeral services were held from the house Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, Rev. Egge officiating. Interment was in Groton Union cemetery.