JOHN CHAMP TUCKER, DECEASED

Born Aug. 31, 1841, in Skaneateles, N. Y. Died at Groton, at the home of his cousin, Mrs. F. Jarvis, Nov. 25, 1904—63 years of age.

Deceased was a man of fine attainments, and had followed the profession of teaching for many years. He came first to Groton in 1885, and for two or three months in 1886, taught in the public schools. Later he located at Williston, Williams county, N. D., where he held the position of deputy treasurer. Returned to Groton about three years ago, and made his home here up to the time of his death. He had been in failing health for some time. While he did not make many acquaintances, those who knew him well recognized him as a good citizen and an honorable, upright gentleman.

He was a member of the Congregational church at Williston.

Funeral services were conducted on Sunday afternoon by Rev. J. S. Butt, and the body was laid to rest in Union Cemetery.
