August 30, 1962

a M. Von Wald

Mathew Von Wald, 70, passed suddenly and unexpectedly fol- a heart attack at his home in nd, Oregon, August 19, 1962.

was born in West Hanson ship, February 14, 1892, and liv- his parents on the farm, now by Val. Von Wald. In 1908 moved to Groton. He took a course after that he was em- at the Groton State Bank until his brother, Walter, went into ship their father's garage in was married to Helen Ubel at Minn., June 30, 1917. They ished their first home in Groton, to Cochrane, Wis., where he was er of a garage. In 1940 they to Portland, Ore., where they resided since. He was employed defense plant until he retired due vivors in addition to his widow de two sons, Major John Von of the United States Air Force Charles Von Wald, of Portland, brothers, Conrad of Stratford, Valentine, Groton, S. D., Walter deen, S. D., and George, Seattle, two sisters Mrs. Anna Zoellner Mrs. Otto Zoellner (Christina) of Groton, three grandchildren many nephews and nieces. His nts and three sisters, preceded in death neral services were held Wed- y, Aug. 22, 1962, at 2:00 p. m. Rev. A. Miller officiated at the Four are Gospel church and Sunnyside e 163 A. F. & A. M. Mr. Arnold tick was soloist and Mrs. S. F er organist. Pallbearers were bers of the Sunnyside Lodge. In- ent was at Skyline Memorial Gar- s at Portland.

alter Von Wald of Aberdeen, S. D., nded the funeral.