9-8-82

Hayley Hammond

Hayley M. Hammond, 18, of 2219 12th Ave. S.E., died of cancer Wednesday, Sept. 1, at her home.

The funeral was held at 10:30 a.m., Saturday, Sept. 4, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church with the Rev. Gary Ternes officiating.

Active casketbearers were Gene Ellenson, Rob Wallace, Larry Barrett, Gary Barrett, Terry Cleberg and Tom Durland, all of Britton. Honorary casketbearers were the Britton High School Class of 1982. Alice Palmquist was organist and Nyle Meeker the soloist. Dan O'-Brien was lector and Frank Meehan served as usher.

Hayley Marie Hammond was born December 26, 1963, at Sioux Falls to Cliff and Rosemary Hammond. The family later moved to Redfield where she started school. She attended schools at Kadoka and Huron and graduated from Britton High School in 1982. In high school she participated in speech, drama and music. She was also an assistant troop leader for the Britton Brownie Troop and was a past member of the Girl Scouts at Britton. She was listed in Who's Who in High Schools in 1981-82.

Survivors include her parents, Aberdeen; two brothers, Scott and Paul, at home; one sister, Brenda, at home; her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hammond, Claremont; her paternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Pansy Williams, Aberdeen; and her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Marie Leesch, Redfield.

She was preceded in death by her maternal grandfather.