

Iva Borton

11/7/84

Mrs. Richard (Iva Mae) Borton, age 73, formerly of Bakersfield, Calif. and since 1978 of Clinton, Wash., died suddenly at her home on November 2.

Iva was born at Huffton, July 22, 1911 to the late Iver and Mary Gibbs. She attended country school and graduated from Groton High School. Following graduation, she attended Nursing School and later worked as a nurse for Dr. Bunker and Dr. Rudolph in Aberdeen until she moved to California.

She was preceded in death by her husband Richard Borton. She is survived by three sons, John R. Borton, Austin, Tex.; Fred R. Borton, II, Bakersfield, Calif.; William R. Borton, Langly, Wash.; two daughters, Mrs. Bill (Mary) Loscher, Belleville, Wash., and Mrs. Jack (Jayne) Kline, Kernville, Calif.; eleven grandchildren; one brother, Bert Gibbs, Claremont; two sisters, Mrs. Donna Aves, Groton, and Mrs. Marion Wentz, Upper Lake, Calif.

The family prefers memorials to the American Cancer Society.