Grace Herron 9/26/84

Services for Grace Herron, 94, Mother Joseph Manor, formerly of Groton, were held at 1 p.m. Friday, Sept. 21, at Miller-Huebl Funeral Home, 1111 S. Main St., with the Rev. Cynthia Ganzkow-Wold, Bethlehem Lutheran Church, officiating.

Burial was in the Groton Union Cemetery.

She died Wednesday, Sept. 19, 1984, at Mother Joseph Manor.

Casketbearers were nieces and nephews, Betty Purcell, La Puente, Calif.; Dorothy Schulz, McLaughlin; Lavohn Sieh, Bath; Dwayne Wing, LaGrande, Ore.; Dawn Jones, Bath; Carol Schuck, Pearl Hovrud and Eunice Kolbo, all of Aberdeen; LeRoy Herron and Gladys Adler, both of Groton: Vinton and Kenneth Henderson, both of Lodgepole. Organist was Curtis Turner with Kim Kane the soloist.

Grace Herron was born May 15, 1890, at Groton. She attended school there and graduated from Groton High School with the class of 1908. She attended Northern Normal and Industrial School where she received her bachelor of science degree in education.

She taught school in the Great Falls and Billings, Mont., area. Later she returned to Aberdeen to be with her mother. She taught in area schools until retirement in the early 1950's.

Survivors include one brother, Walter, Groton.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers and two sisters.