

March 3, 2010

The Life of Doris Paeth Brewington

- Doris Jeannette (Paeth) Brewington was born on January 15, 1924 in Groton, South Dakota and died on February 24, 2010 in Auburn, Washington. Doris was blessed with a loving family and is survived by son Harold (Genia) and grandson Jeffrey (Jessica), daughter Anita (Tom) Lydiard, granddaughters Kim (Doug) Walker and Tabitha Lydiard, grandsons Thomas (Ashlee) Lydiard, Christopher Lydiard, and Ryan Lydiard (Meghann James), and nine great-grandchildren.
- Doris married Willard Brewington in 1956 in Juneau, Alaska. In 1961, she moved with her family to Marquette, Michigan, when her husband accepted a transfer within the U.S. Department of the Interior Bureau of Commercial Fisheries. After moving to Upper Michigan, Doris spent several years as a Tupperware dealer.

- Doris and Willard retired in 1975 and moved to Washington, where they continued to spend their summers each year. They spent time traveling in their RV as members of the Escapees RV Club, and lived many years in Arizona prior to returning to Washington.
- Doris was preceded in death by her husband, Willard Brewington, parents, Edward and Ruth Paeth, sister Shireen (Paeth) Phillips, son Maurice Garrettson and grandson Tommy Garrettson.
- A memorial service will be held at Messiah Lutheran Church in Auburn, Washington on Saturday, March 6th at 10:30 am. Memorials in Doris' honor may be made to the American Cancer Society.