

GEORGE BROUGHMAN DEAD

8-28-1918

George Broughman Dies After Very Short Illness.

George Broughman died at the hospital in Aberdeen last Friday morning. Mr. Broughman has made his home in Groton and vicinity for about ten years lately he has been working at Groton Auto Company. He had been suffering from diabetes for some time and a short time ago infected his hand. In his weakened condition blood poisoning set in resulting in his death. Little is known concerning his family save that his mother is living somewhere in Michigan and that he has one brother in the service. The Deceased was a quiet unassuming fellow, well liked by his friends and associates. Funeral services were held at the Methodist Episcopal Church, Monday, conducted by the Rev. C. B. Harold. Internment was made at the Groton Union Cemetary.
