

June 18, 1959

Mrs. Daisy Moore Burdick

Graveside twilight services were held last Wednesday, June 10th, at 4:30 p. m., for Mrs. Daisy Burdick, 79, who passed away at her home at South Gate, Calif., on May 25, 1959, with the Rev. Robert Carey, Presbyterian church reading the committal service. Burial was in the family lot of Groton cemetery.

Mrs. Kermit Sperry sang "Beyond the Sunset" and Mrs. Ida Pfeifer, gave a prayer with the Rebekahs attending in a group, as Mrs. Burdick had been a former member while residing here.

Daisy Moore Burdick was born at Belmont, Ontario, Canada, Oct. 18, 1879. At age of 4, she came with her parents and one sister to Groton, where she resided until going to Seattle, Wash., in 1914, later moving to South Gate, where she has lived the past seven years.

Surviving is one son, Donald of South Gate. She was preceded in death by her parents, and sister.