

May 14, 1980

Don Cook

Funeral services were held on Wednesday, May 7, 1980, for Donald Milo Cook, 60, of 148 Cypress Ave., Pahokee, Fla.

Mr. Cook passed away on Monday, May 5, at Everglades Memorial Hospital.

He was born in Groton and attended school here. He had been a resident of Pahokee for 26 years. He was a member of the Pahokee First United Methodist Church, a veteran of World War II and was the owner of Don's Paint and Body Shop.

Survivors include his wife, Norma; sons Paul Cook, of Pahokee and Phillip Cook, of Gainesville; a daughter Lisa Cook of Pahokee; sisters Lois Sour, of Groton and Claribel Olsen, of River Falls, Wis., and two grandchildren, Paul and Michael Cook of Waubay.

Services were held at the Pahokee First United Methodist Church with the Rev. Ray Simmons officiating.

Interment was at the Port Mayaca Cemetery.

Casket bearers were Fred Hickerson, Tommy Culberson, Carlo Raineri, Bobby Barnes, Foster Lassiter and Benny Sims.