OBITUARY.

Ralph Cramer, a boy of five and one-half years, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cramer, died early Monday morning.

Funeral services were conducted on Tuesday afternoon by Rev. Thomas Sanderson.

The little fellow was taken with measles something over a month ago, followed by fatal lung trouble.

Ralph was a very bright, promising little fellow—the kind of a boy that makes for himself a large place in the love and affections of the household. The sincerest regret is expressed by all, and the parents have the keenest sympathy in their affliction.

Our little Ralph from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled
Our bud to bloom in heaven,
And though the body slumbers now
The soul is safe with Jesus.
