

February 20, 1969

George Dohman

Mass for George J. Dohman, 88, a retired farmer and carpenter, was at 3:00 p. m., Saturday, Feb. 15 in Groton, at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church.

The Rev. Fr. Edward Burian officiated and burial was in St. Otto's Cemetery in Webster.

Rosary was recited on Thursday evening at the Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel by Rev. Fr. McPhee.

Pall bearers, all grandsons were LeRoy Dohman, George Dohman, James Marx, William Marx, David Reinhardt and Terry Thompson.

George James Dohman, son of Hubert and Nellie Dohman was born October 30, 1880 at Cold Springs, Minn. He was married to Agnes Kriech in St. Otto's Catholic Church, Webster, S. D. on November 19, 1913. He served as a Sergeant in the Army Coast Artillery for three years including duty in San Francisco, during the big earthquake and fire in 1906.

He had lived in the Groton area for 20 years, previously residing in the Andover and Webster communities.

He is survived by his widow; six sons, William of Crocker, Francis and Richard of Groton, Herbert of Sioux Falls, Leslie of Putney and Robert of Denver, Colo.; five daughters, Mrs. Edward (Elizabeth) Marx, Bristol, Dorothy Dohman and Mrs. Winn (Berdeen) Coody, Denver, Colo., Mrs. Raymond (Elaine) Reinhardt, Verdon and Mrs. Darwin (Mary Ann) Thompson, Groton; a sister, Mrs. Olivia Ackerman, Waubay; 39 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a daughter, Margaret Mary; his parents; three brothers and six sisters.