

March 25, 2006

Obit: Donald E. Dombrowe

- Donald E. Dombrowe, 84, of Davenport, Iowa, died Sunday, March 19, 2006 at Bettendorf Heath Care Center. His funeral was held Thursday, March 23, 2006 at the Runge Mortuary. Burial followed at Davenport Memorial Park Cemetery. Memorials may be made to the Alzheimer's or Diabetes Association.

- Donald was born September 29, 1921 in Groton, SD to Fred and Eda (Smeenk) Dombrowe. Don was united in marriage to Anna Marie Bahr on December 12, 1949 in Groton, SD. Don served 12 years in the United States Navy during WW II and the Korean Conflict, and was a Pearl Harbor survi vor.

- Don retired from Sears, Roebuck and Co. then managed Thermal Company, and a bowling alley. He also worked at Von Maur and was a courier for Metropolitan Lab, retiring again at age 80.

- Don was very patriotic and was also a life member of the American Legion and the VFW.

- Don was proud of being a "Die Hard Cub Fan" since 1939. He played semi-pro baseball, refereed for the Harlen Globe Trotters and guided Ted Williams pheasant hunting while in South Dakota. He also loved to bowl and had been active in many bowling leagues.

- Those left to honor his memory include his wife, Anna Marie, daughter, Deanna and son-in-law, Ron Gross, Cedar Rapids, IA, and the other love of his life, his grandson, RJ, Cedar Rapids, IA.

- Don was preceded in death by his parents, and brother Robert.

- Condolences may be expressed to the family by visiting RungeMortuary.com