

CHAS. A. DRESBACH

10-17-1918
Shocked Friday When
Was Circulated.

Community was shocked Friday was brought to town an-death of Charles Albert a result of pneumonia, attack of influenza.

ch had not been well for with characteristic en-up with his work on the at work just a few days ath. He had just recently of his father's farm, the to Aberdeen.

services were conducted noon by Rev. T. R. Tag-family home and interment the Groton Union ceme-

Albert Dresbach was born Ill., December 25, 1888, his home near this city on aged 29 years, 9 months

He was born and raised of the Brethern church, had a smile and helping rybody. A short time ago that the Brethern relig-religion, and seemed the live by. His motto was by others as he would to do for him.

ited in marriage to Miss erry, December 12, 1911, he lived happily for almost

Two sons were born to ho with the wife and moents and five sisters, his s, three sisters and two left to mourn his deparernal home.

elt sympathy of the com-tended to the bereaved ents.