

January 4, 2006

Jerome James "Jerry" Drobny Sr.

- DROBNY, Sr., Jerome James "Jerry" died unexpectedly but peacefully December 28, 2005 in Sacramento, Calif.
- Jerry was born December 13, 1931 in Claremont, South Dakota. He graduated from Sacramento High School and Phi Beta Kappa from Stanford University in German Language Studies. Honorably served in the U.S. Army. He served as teacher for 34 years in the Sacramento schools primarily at Sacramento High School, Albert Einstein Junior High and Fern Bacon Junior High. He was a 60 year member of First English Lutheran Church.
- Jerry will be missed by many friends, relatives and acquaintances.
- Jerry is survived by wife of 45 years, May Irvine Drobny; sons and daughters-in-law, Jerry Jr. and Sandy, Bill and Penny; three grandchildren, Gordon, Anna and Ilene; as well as sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Sheila Irvine Mobley and Jack Mobley; and nieces, Janet Calinsky and Donna Harrisberger.
- All are invited to viewing from 3 to 7 pm on Wednesday, January 4 at East Lawn Memorial Park Chapel located at 43rd & Folsom Blvd, as well as a memorial service and reception at 2 pm on Thursday, January 5 at First English Lutheran Church located at 39th Street and 4th Ave.
- In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to First English Lutheran Church, 3860 4th Ave. Sacramento, CA 95817 or to a charity of your choice.

• Published in the Sacramento Bee