

ALEX EVERSON

2-20-1919

Prominent Tacoma Park Farmer
Passes Away.

Alex Everson, aged about 30 years, a farmer residing near Tacoma Park, died Friday at his home, following an illness of several weeks with pneumonia, which was preceded by an attack of influenza.

The deceased was well known and highly esteemed and the announcement of his death was received with many regrets. He leaves to mourn a wife and four children, Violet, aged 9; Vivian, aged 7; Hazel, aged 6; Virgil, aged 3; his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Everson of this city, two brothers, Hans of Plana and Fred of Columbia, and one sister, Mrs. Cecil Young, of this city.—Aberdeen News.