Funeral Rites Held for Henry Foth on Thursday

The remains of Henry Foth, well known Groton farmer, were dedicated to the last long rest at a Requiem high mass sung at St. John's Catholic church in this city by the Rev. Fr. Emmeron, assistant pastor of St. Mary's, Aberdeen, last Thursday morning with the Rev. Fr. Thos. Shanley, pastor of the church assisting.

Active pall bearers were long-time friends of the deceased: Theo. and Ross Funk, F. J. Jiran, J. A. Donovan, P. W. Holloran and B. E. Archer. Honorary pall bearers were: W. E. Bowles, Frank Sieh, Olaf E. Hundstad, Wm. Young, Clyde Milstead and J. H. Thoeny. Interment was made in the St. John's Catholic cemetery here beside his wife who died in 1919.
