Died at the Emergency Hospital on Sunday Evening.

The funeral of Clement Froehle, who died at the Emergency hospital Sunday evening of this week, was held Wednesday morning from the Catholic church, Rev. Father Murphy of Conde officiating.

Mr. Froehle was about thirty-two years of age and was a successful and useful farmer. He is survived by a sorrowing wife and one child about a year old and other relatives and a host of friends, who mourn his untimely departure.
