George Dewey Frommel

Geroge Dewey Frommel passed away at his home Friday morning, July 17, in Montevideo, Minn., of a heart attack.

Services were held Monday at 9 a. m., July 20th, in St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Montevideo.

George was born March 3, 1898, the son of Adam and Sophia Frommel on the Frommel Farm south of Groton where he lived until going to Mitchell, to work in a grocery store.

He was united in marriage to Barbara Schueren on Jan. 30, 1922 in Mitchell and later moved to Montevideo where he was in the grocery business for many years, having retired recently.

He was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Montevideo.

Survivors include his wife, one son, Geo. D. Jr., one daughter, Sister Martin DePorres, who teaches music in Minneapolis; two sisters, Mrs. Eva Kleppin of Wessington Springs, Pearl Frommel, Groton and four nieces and four nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two sisters and four brothers.
