

July 24, 1969

Mrs. Pattie Gearey

Funeral services for Mrs. Pattie Gearey, 66, were held Saturday afternoon, July 19, at the Presbyterian Church in Stratford with the Rev. Robert Carey officiating. Interment was in West Rondell cemetery.

Music was by Hurst Williamss, as soloist and Miss Ann Erdmann, organist.

Pall bearers were Richard Francoli, Dayle Luedeke, Allen Robinson, C. S. Kramer, Kenneth Jark and Gordon Gerharter, all of Stratford. Ushers were Dennis Rossow and Lynn Erdmann.

Mrs. Gearey died at a rest home in Clark which she had just entered a few days prior to her death.

Pattie Collum was born Feb. 2, 1903 at Wittenberg, Wis. She attended schools in Stratford. For many years she served as a private nurse for the aged. She was a member of the Stratford Presbyterian Church and the Rebekah Lodge of Stratford.

Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Mollie Conroy, Tucson, Ariz., and Mrs. Dollie Dobberpuhl of Stratford; a niece, Mrs. Dayle Luedeke, Stratford and two nephews. Her husband preceded her in death.