Andrew P. Goodman

Services for Andrew Goodman, 84, Conde, were held Monday, Nov. 3, at 2:00 p. m., in the Methodist church in Conde with the Rev. James Vos officiating. Burial was in the Conde cemetery.

Mr. Goodman passed away Friday at the Blume Rest Home in Redfield.

Music was provided by the ladies' quartet who sang, "Beyond the Sunset" and the congregation singing "What a Friend We Have In Jesus," accompanied by Mrs. Melvin Rossow, organist.

Pall bearers were Dale Dunker, Robert Knickrehm, Howard Nogie, Kenneth Ott, Arista Padfield and Melvin Rossow.

Mr. Goodman was born August 29, 1885 at North English, Ia., and married Rose Schaffner at Millersburg, Ia., Jan. 23, 1910. He had been a resident of Conde for the past 12 years, previously he had farmed in the Randolph and Verdon areas since 1910.

Survivors are his widow; a daughter, Mrs. Aaron (Ruby) Boettcher, St. Peter, Minn., and three grandchildren. A son, two brothers and three sisters preceded Mr. Goodman in death.

Arrangements were in charge of the Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel.
