

Arvilla Fliehs Goss

11-2-83
Arvilla Fliehs Goss, 61, died Saturday, Oct. 29 at her home in Tucson, Ariz.

Services were held at the South Lawn Chapel on Tuesday, Nov. 1, with the Rev. Donald B. Cooke officiating. Burial was at the South Lawn Cemetery, Tucson, Ariz.

Arvilla Fliehs Goss was born July 23, 1922 in rural Edgar, Wis., to Richard Fliehs and Bertha (Rose) Fliehs.

As a young child she lived in rural Edgar, Wis. She graduated from high school at Athens, Wis. After graduation she moved to Chicago, Ill., and was employed as a telephone operator.

She married Alfred Goss on January 3, 1948, in Tucson, Ariz. In 1949, they moved to Groton and managed a local gas station. Due to Arvilla's asthma the family returned to Tucson in 1950.

Survivors include her husband; son Ronald and his wife Vicky and their daughter Devin; daughter Linda Todd and her husband Gary and their children David and Shari; all of Tucson, Ariz.; two brothers, Harvey Fliehs and Richard Fliehs, Groton; one sister, Mrs. Carlmon (Doris) Briggs, Tucson, Ariz.; three half brothers, Duane Fliehs, Apple Valley, Minn.; Darrel Fliehs, Groton and Dale Fliehs, Vermillion; two half sisters, Mrs. Ross (Diane) Hickenbotham, Aberdeen; Sharon Fliehs, Loveland, Colo.

She was preceded in death by her parents and two sisters.